

REPRESENTATIVE U. S. TREASURY,
FRED A. STOCKS.

WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT.
BOARD OF MANAGEMENT.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 13th, 1893.

Honorable John G. Carlisle,
Secretary of the Treasury,
Washington, D. C.

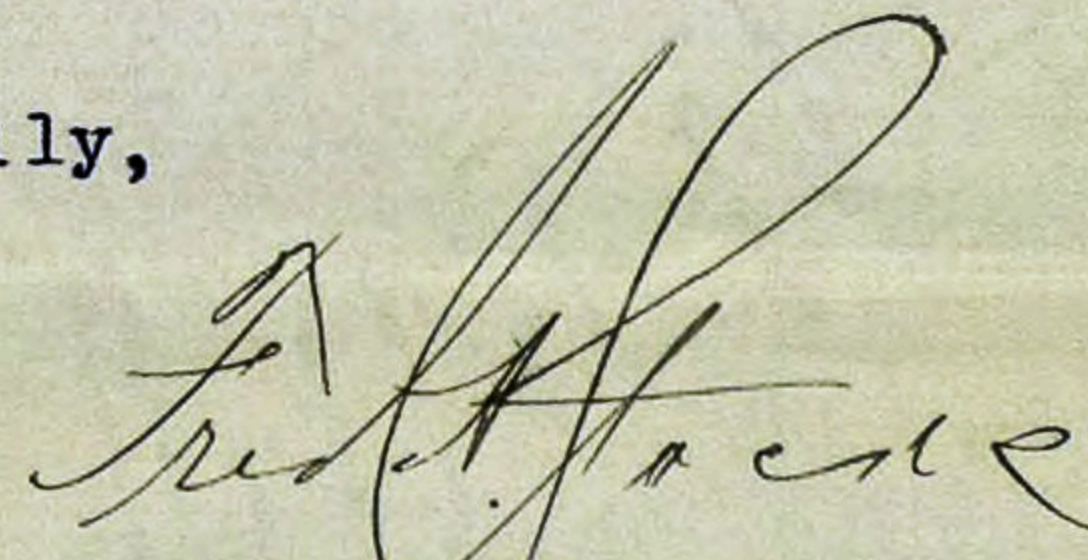

(Chief Clerk:)

Sir:—

Referring to my letter of the Aug. 24th, and to your endorsement of the 28th ultimo I would respectfully request that Mr. Henry Oppen be detailed for duty in connection with the Mint
Section of the Treasury Department Exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition. Mr Oppen is a practical machinist and electrician, and will materially aid in the care of the minting press.

The expenses of Mr. Oppen while absent from Philadelphia will be paid by the concessionaire from the proceeds of the sale of medals that are stamped by the press on exhibition here.

Respectfully,

Representative,
Treasury Department.
